50X1-HUM

1. North of the main road from Prague to Kolin, about two kilometers east of the village of Planany (051/M28), is the hamlet Nove Mesto. South of Nove Mesto, just across the main road and covering an area of 400 x 400 meters, is an underground oil dump of unknown capacity.
2. Oil is supplied to the dump by the pipeline from Bratislava to Prague or Kralupy (N51/F60).
3. A pumping station is located in a small concrete building. Nearby is a wooden hut containing machinery and a guardroom. There is one guard in black uniform, armed with a pistol.
4. The construction of this dump and pumping station was started in 1950.
